

Bio for Brian Rugg

June, 2010

Brian Rugg is a senior executive with an emphasis in sales, marketing, and extensive experience in general management, business development, market analysis and client satisfaction. Mr. Rugg is a 27-year veteran of a Fortune 200 company where he led three separate businesses as North American and European Sales Manager. He was founder and CEO of an internet services company driving a paradigm shift within the building industry, Senior Vice President at an innovative software provider in the new drug development / clinical trials industry, and President of a unique building industry purchasing and marketing cooperative. Mr. Rugg is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, at Whitewater, the Graduate School of Sales and Marketing Management at Syracuse University, and the MIT/Sloan Greater Boston Executive Program.

In April of 2009 Mr. Rugg has opened Rugg Realty as Broker & Owner after holding positions as the COO and Executive VP Business Development at ERA Boston Real Estate Group. He has extensive knowledge of the Massachusetts real estate market as Senior Sales and Marketing Specialist and holds active designations as an Accredited Buyers' Representative, as well as an ERA Premier Agent, multi-year Ambassadors Circle winner and Boston Home Marketing Specialist. He serves the greater Boston area and all Boston neighborhoods with special emphasis on Back Bay, Beacon Hill, and the South End.

In June of 2010 Mr. Rugg expanded Rugg Realty to include Sun City Texas in Georgetown, TX. He writes and publishes an unbiased analysis of Sun City's real estate market conditions, sales results and trends. For a copy of his latest report please or a personal consultation about your real estate needs, e-mail your request to Brian@RuggRealty.com, contact Mr. Rugg directly at 512-240-4560, or visit www.SunCityHomesForSaleOnline.com.